

Aboriginal Learning, Wellbeing and Safety Action Plan

Background

Huntingdale Primary School embraces the vision of the Marrung Aboriginal Education Plan and celebrates the culture, knowledge and experiences of First Nations Peoples. We are committed to creating and maintaining a school environment that empowers Koorie students to feel valued, respected and culturally strong.

Note: Throughout this document the term Koorie is used to refer to both Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Purpose

To ensure:

- That Huntingdale Primary School community acknowledges and appreciates the strengths of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture.
- That the school has a focus on educating its students with Aboriginal perspectives.
- The school is compliant with the Child Safe Standards and DET policies related to First Nations People.
- The policy maintains the DET values of leadership, impartiality, integrity, human rights, accountability, respect and responsiveness.

Implementation

- The principal has the overall responsibility of implementing this action plan and will delegate certain roles and responsibilities to staff to action.

Curriculum and learning

Huntingdale supports the development of high expectations and individualised learning for Koorie students and creates a learning environment for all students that acknowledges, respects and values Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures and identities. This includes:

- Development of a Cultural Inclusion Plan which outlines the yearly actions in teaching and learning and is reviewed each year.
- Implementing the Department of Education and Training's Koorie Education Policy
- Ensuring that all Koorie students have individual education plans developed in partnership with students, families, and KESOs.

Assemblies and other school events and activities

We ensure our school events and activities acknowledge and celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture by:

- Acknowledging the Country and Traditional Owners of the land on which our school is located- The Wurundjeri and Bunurong of the Kulin Nation at the start of every school assembly and meeting.
- Ensuring each inquiry unit has aboriginal perspectives and is documented.
- Arranging incursions and excursions based on aboriginal culture.
- Recognising key events and anniversaries that celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture at assembly and in the school newsletter.

Built and digital environment

We ensure our built environment and website demonstrates an appreciation and acknowledgment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture through:

- Flying the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander flags on school grounds.
- Displaying plaques/signs outside our main entrances that Acknowledge Country and Traditional Owners that the school is built on.
- Including an Acknowledgement of Country and Traditional Owners on our website home page.

Training and professional development of staff

To ensure our staff are equipped with the skills and knowledge necessary to create and maintain a positive and inclusive school environment we:

- Ensure staff participate in Community Understanding and Safety Training (CUST) training.
- Support teachers to work in their Professional Learning Communities (PLCs) to map and develop teaching and learning activities within the Victorian Curriculum priorities to enable staff to build their confidence and knowledge with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander content and to recognise opportunities to draw upon Aboriginal pedagogies and practices within their classrooms.
- Ensure training and professional development equips staff with an understanding and appreciation of the strengths of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture and its importance to the wellbeing and safety of Koorie children and students.

Family and community perspectives and feedback

We seek participation and feedback from Koorie students, families and Community by:

- Acknowledging the existing knowledge of Koorie students and their families and seeking their feedback on decisions that affect them, and on how well we are meeting their needs, through initial enrolment meetings, Student Support Groups and during the development of Individual Education Plans.
- Working with our regional Koorie Engagement Support Officers (KESOs) for advice on how we can create a culturally inclusive learning environment and to build our capacity to provide support for individual Koorie students attending our school

Evaluation and Feedback

- This action plan will be reviewed as needed with input from the school community and KESO.
